

True Potential 7IM Cautious¹

30 April 2025

Fund objective

The Fund aims to provide a total return, mostly by income but also with some growth.

April Update

April was a volatile month, as the unveiling of Trump's tariffs triggered a major sell-off across risk assets during the first half of the month. In developed markets, US equities posted the steepest declines while Emerging Market (EM) shares outperformed, supported by a strong rally in Latin America. In fixed income, German Bunds outpaced their sovereign counterparts, with global credit and high-yield bonds also delivering modest gains overall. Elsewhere, gold rallied as investors sought safe-haven assets while crude oil tumbled on growth concerns.

The True Potential 7IM Cautious Fund declined 0.50% (net of fees). The Fund's preference for non-US equities proved beneficial in a weak month for US stocks. The Fund's allocation to UK equities fared better than US stocks, yet still detracted. Conversely, the allocations to global equity themes added value, with the communications services and technology themes performing well. The Fund's exposure to EM equities also provided a positive contribution, supported by the outperformance of Mexican shares. In fixed income, the Fund's preference for core government bonds over corporate bonds was advantageous, as yields edged lower towards the end of the month. German Bunds performed particularly well after the European Central Bank cut its key interest rate by 25 basis points. Even so, the fixed income segment had little impact on relative performance overall as the Fund's allocation to the L&G Emerging Markets Government Bond Index Fund (USD) delivered negative returns. The Fund's allocations to alternative strategies produced mixed results, with exposure to the JPM Trend Note Fund proving detrimental. Elsewhere, the Fund's allocation to the real estate sector through

What is the benchmark for this fund?

The benchmark for this fund is Morningstar UK Moderately Cautious Target Allocation. The benchmark may be used as a guide to compare and assess the performance of the Fund. This benchmark tracks the performance of an index that represents assets or securities with a similar risk profile to the Fund. Our aim is to help you monitor how your investment is performing. This benchmark reflects the multi-asset nature and relative risk profile of the Fund. The Fund does not use the benchmark as a target, nor is the Fund constrained by it. The mix of assets in the Fund may vary from those of the benchmark (and its constituents). Accordingly, it should be used for reference purposes only.

Risks

The following are some of the key risks associated with investing in this Fund. For a complete list of risks, please refer to the Fund's prospectus, available at www.truepotential.co.uk/fund-documents. Please be aware that there is no guarantee that capital will be preserved.

Risk type	Description
Investment Fund Risk	This Fund invests into other investment funds, they may invest in different assets, countries or economic sectors and therefore have different risk profiles not in line with those of this Fund.
Performance Risk	Investment objectives express an intended result but there is no guarantee that such a result will be achieved. Depending on market conditions and the macro-economic environment, certain investment types and styles may perform better than others and investment objectives may become more difficult to achieve.
Emerging Market Risk	Investments in emerging markets may involve greater risks due to political and economic instability, and underdeveloped markets and systems.
Counterparty Risk	There may be cases where the organisation from which we buy a derivative, or an asset, fails to meet its obligations. The Fund's cash deposits are also subject to counterparty risk.
Derivative Risk	The Fund is entitled to use derivatives. Derivatives may not achieve their intended purpose. Their prices may move up or down significantly over relatively short periods of time which may result in losses greater than the amount paid.
Operational Risk	The Fund faces non-market risk, relating to purchasing, holding and servicing the Fund's assets.
Credit Risk	Where the Fund invests in bonds, there is a risk the bond issuer may fail to meet its repayments. Changes in interest rates, inflation and the creditworthiness of the bond issuer may also affect the bond's market value. This risk is particularly relevant where the fund invests in bonds with a lower credit rating.
Exchange Rate Risk	The Fund may invest in securities not denominated in GBP. The value of your investments may be affected by changes in currency exchange rates.
Liquidity Risk	Certain market conditions could make sufficiently liquid assets difficult to sell quickly at a fair price. This could result in an unpredictable fall in the value, and overall liquidity of the Fund.
