

True Potential Growth-Aligned Growth

30 April 2026

Fund objective

The Fund aims to achieve growth over the long term (5 years or longer).

April Update

Global equities rallied in April amid hopes of a ceasefire in the Middle East and solid corporate earnings. Emerging Market (EM) equities led the gains and outpaced their developed market counterparts. In developed markets, US shares outperformed, while UK equities proved a laggard. In fixed income, UK Gilts underperformed, while riskier high-yield (HY) bonds did well. Elsewhere, gold ended slightly down despite a softer US dollar.

The True Potential Growth-Aligned Growth Fund returned 6.15% (net of fees). The Fund's sizeable allocation to equities proved beneficial, with EM shares delivering the best gains over the month. Conversely, the Fund's underexposure to US equities weighed on returns as US shares outpaced the broader market. More positively, relative performance from active managers was supportive, with the Artemis Global EM Fund delivering the best gains overall. In fixed income, the Fund's preference for UK Gilts was a notable detractor, as they produced negative returns. Meanwhile, the allocation to US inflation-linked Treasuries, EM debt and HY bonds was advantageous. In alternatives, the AQR Managed Futures Fund (hedged to sterling) delivered gains in absolute terms, while the Fund's exposure to gold via the Amundi Physical Gold Fund detracted.

Investment Fund Risk	This Fund invests into other investment funds, they may invest in different assets, countries or economic sectors and therefore have different risk profiles not in line with those of this Fund.
Performance Risk	Investment objectives express an intended result but there is no guarantee that such a result will be achieved. Depending on market conditions and the macro-economic environment, certain investment types and styles may perform better than others and investment objectives may become more difficult to achieve.
Emerging Market Risk	Investments in emerging markets may involve greater risks due to political and economic instability, and underdeveloped markets and systems.
Counterparty Risk	There may be cases where the organisation from which we buy a derivative, or an asset, fails to meet its obligations. The Fund's cash deposits are also subject to counterparty risk.
Derivative Risk	The Fund is entitled to use derivatives. Derivatives may not achieve their intended purpose. Their prices may move up or down significantly over relatively short periods of time which may result in losses greater than the amount paid.

Credit Risk	Where the Fund invests in bonds, there is a risk the bond issuer may fail to meet its repayments. Changes in interest rates, inflation and the creditworthiness of the bond issuer may also affect the bond's market value. This risk is particularly relevant where the fund invests in bonds with a lower credit rating.
Exchange Rate Risk	The Fund may invest in securities not denominated in GBP. The value of your investments may be affected by changes in currency exchange rates.
Liquidity Risk	Certain market conditions could make sufficiently liquid assets difficult to sell quickly at a fair price. This could result in an unpredictable fall in the value, and overall liquidity of the Fund.
