True Potential SEI Growth

31 August 2026

Fund objective

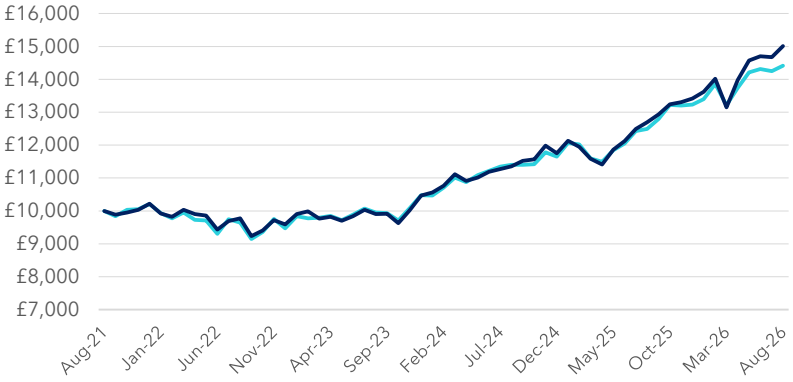

The Fund aims to provide growth by investing directly and indirectly in the UK and around the world, predominantly in other investment funds which have a global equity focus.

August Update

Global equities rose in August, supported by solid corporate earnings and gains in artificial intelligence-linked names. Emerging Market (EM) equities advanced and outpaced their developed market counterparts in US dollar terms, led by strong performance from Taiwan. In developed markets, Japanese and US shares outperformed, while UK equities proved a laggard. In fixed income, EM debt and high-yield (HY) bonds delivered the best returns. Elsewhere, gold prices rallied amid a softer dollar.

The True Potential SEI Growth Fund returned 2.29% (net of fees). All of the allocations to index funds that track global equity factors delivered gains in absolute terms but the 'momentum', 'managed volatility', 'value' and 'quality' factors lagged global equities. Within the 'dynamic factor allocation', a tilt towards the 'value' factor detracted, while the 'dynamic asset allocation', 'small cap' and 'global minimum variance' factors performed in line with the broader market. The Fund's sizeable allocation to EM equities via the SEI Emerging Markets Equity Fund also performed broadly in line with global equities. In fixed income, the Fund's exposure to inflation-linked Gilts via the SEI U.K. Index-Linked Fixed Interest Fund produced the best returns within the segment, followed by the allocations to HY bonds and EM debt.

Investment Fund Risk	This Fund invests into other investment funds, they may invest in different assets, countries or economic sectors and therefore have different risk profiles not in line with those of this Fund.
Performance Risk	Investment objectives express an intended result but there is no guarantee that such a result will be achieved. Depending on market conditions and the macro-economic environment, certain investment types and styles may perform better than others and investment objectives may become more difficult to achieve.
Emerging Market Risk	Investments in emerging markets may involve greater risks due to political and economic instability, and underdeveloped markets and systems.
Counterparty Risk	There may be cases where the organisation from which we buy a derivative, or an asset, fails to meet its obligations. The Fund's cash deposits are also subject to counterparty risk.

Credit Risk	Where the Fund invests in bonds, there is a risk the bond issuer may fail to meet its repayments. Changes in interest rates, inflation and the creditworthiness of the bond issuer may also affect the bond's market value. This risk is particularly relevant where the fund invests in bonds with a lower credit rating.
Exchange Rate Risk	The Fund may invest in securities not denominated in GBP. The value of your investments may be affected by changes in currency exchange rates.
Liquidity Risk	Certain market conditions could make sufficiently liquid assets difficult to sell quickly at a fair price. This could result in an unpredictable fall in the value, and overall liquidity of the Fund.
