True Potential Threadneedle Monthly Income

31 August 2026

Fund objective

The Fund aims to achieve regular income growth with prospects of capital growth. Income will be paid monthly where the level of income within the Fund allows.

August Update

Global equities rose in August, supported by solid corporate earnings and gains in artificial intelligence-linked names. Emerging Market (EM) equities advanced and outpaced their developed market counterparts in US dollar terms, led by strong performance from Taiwan. In developed markets, Japanese and US shares outperformed, while UK equities proved a laggard. In fixed income, EM debt and high-yield (HY) bonds delivered the best returns. Elsewhere, gold prices rallied amid a softer dollar.

The True Potential Threadneedle Monthly Income Fund returned 0.82% (net of fees), with the Fund's sizeable allocation to UK shares proving a hindrance as the region underperformed the broader market over the month. The preference for UK value-style shares was another detractor as they lagged their growth-style peers. At the stock level, the most notable detractors included tobacco company Imperial Brands, pharmaceutical firm GSK and medical technology group Smith & Nephew. Conversely, media company WPP, recruitment firm Hays and builder's merchant and home improvement retailer Travis Perkins were among the most notable contributors. In fixed income, a sizeable exposure to UK corporate bonds proved detrimental as they underperformed both their global counterparts and HY bonds. A modest allocation to UK Gilts also weighed on returns. Elsewhere, the exposure to real estate investment trusts delivered positive returns overall, supported by solid gains from Shaftesbury Capital PLC.

Risks

The following are some of the key risks associated with investing in this Fund. For a complete list of risks, please refer to the Fund's prospectus, available at www.truepotential.co.uk/fund-documents. Please be aware that there is no guarantee that capital will be preserved.

| Risk type | Description |
|---|---|
| Performance Risk | Investment objectives express an intended result but there is no guarantee that such a result will be achieved. Depending on market conditions and the macro-economic environment, certain investment types and styles may perform better than others and investment objectives may become more difficult to achieve. |
| Counterparty Risk | There may be cases where the organisation from which we buy a derivative, or an asset, fails to meet its obligations. The Fund's cash deposits are also subject to counterparty risk. |
| Derivative Risk | The Fund is entitled to use derivatives. Derivatives may not achieve their intended purpose. Their prices may move up or down significantly over relatively short periods of time which may result in losses greater than the amount paid. |
| Operational Risk | The Fund faces non-market risk, relating to purchasing, holding and servicing the Fund's assets. |
| Credit Risk | Where the Fund invests in bonds, there is a risk the bond issuer may fail to meet its repayments. Changes in interest rates, inflation and the creditworthiness of the bond issuer may also affect the bond's market value. This risk is particularly relevant where the fund invests in bonds with a lower credit rating. |
| Liquidity Risk | Certain market conditions could make sufficiently liquid assets difficult to sell quickly at a fair price. This could result in an unpredictable fall in the value, and overall liquidity of the Fund. |
